Reference: Bank Reference Letter

Dear Sir/Madame:

This letter is to confirm the accounts and credit facilities for BEK, Inc. with American Savings Bank.

The company transferred its banking relationship from another financial institution the American Savings Bank in April 2001. Presently, American Savings Bank provides the company with a revolving line of credit in the amount of mid-seven figures, under which there is a $0 outstanding balance. Payments on the credit facility have been made as agreed. BEK, Inc. opened its primary operating accounts in April 2001, in which it maintains a year-to-date aggregate average balance in the amount of low-seven figures. The account has been handled satisfactorily with no overdrafts or return items.

Since the start of the banking relationship, we have determined in our evaluation of the company that it incorporates sound operating practices. The company manages its credit responsibly with no record of pending suits, liens or judgments. The company is well-established and Bert Beaman, President, and management have significant experience in the areas of business administration and field operations in the construction industry. The company has developed excellent working relationships with its clients, including general contractors and developers in Hawaii.

Should you have any questions or require any additional information, please feel free to call me at (808) 539-7806.

Sincerely,
American Savings Bank

Danford H. Oshima
